is pleased to put your People in mind of the Miseries they endured (when the Monarchy was shaken off) by those most Illegal and Arbitrary Powers, (who most Tyrannically disposed of the Lives and Fortunes of your good Subjects at their pleasers, and left them neither Religion, Liberty or Property,) And that your Majesty is Graciously pleased to give us your Royal Word to Govern according to the Laws of the Kingdom, which cannot but Extinguish, and thereby quiet the Fears and Jealousies of all rational, and good Men, and we hope bring them to a right Sense of their Duty to your Majesty, and their own Interest, and make them confident they shall enjoy their Religion, Liberty and Property. And for our own parts, we do assure your most Sacred Majesty, It hath made so deep an Impression in us, that we unanimously Resolve our Lives and Fortunes shall be at your Majesties Service, for the Defence of your Majesties most Sacred Person from Danger (whom God preserve) and for the preservation of the true Protestant Religion, and your Majesties Government in Church and State as by Law established.

Ince we are very sensible that no Age hath ever yet produced any Prince that hath with more Justice, Goodness and Mercy, swayed the Scepters of the three Kingdoms (Blessings which our Fore-Fathers never had in a more eminent degree of Perfection, and all other Nations never yet knew) We conceive it our Duty to manifest to your Majesty and all the World our just value, and grateful gratefull apprehensions of the happiness we enjoy under the best of Kings and most upright of Governments: And however some ill Men to accomplish their black design by attempting to subvert the Government; first insinuate to the credulous People, caustic Fears and false Jealousies of Arbitrary Power growing upon us, yet the publick Manifestations Your Majesty hath at all times given to Your people of your Governing by the Laws of the Land and by no other Method (which we find Your Majesty holds to be so plausibly maintained as sacred) keep us as safe from such mean apprehensions, as we are secure from the dismal Effects of such a way of Government, which we have no cause to suspect unless it be from those that suggest it, nor from them, neither till they have subverted a well temper'd Monarchy, and introduc'd their beloy'd Tyrannical Republick. We cannot but with all humble Duty, Loyal Gratitude, and Excess of Joy observe Your Majesties constant Endeavours to give Satisfaction and Ease to the Minds of Your Majesties Subjects, not only in Your strict Adherence to and Favour of the True Protestant Religion, but more especially in Your late Declaration, which cannot but stop the mouths of the Seditious and Factionous, preserve from imposture the Doubtful, and confirm the Loyalty of Your best settled Subjects; And that Your Majesty may see that we are not poison'd or likely to be so by any Seditious or Factionous Designs, we do unanimously and heartily Assure Your Sacred Majesty that we will stand by Your Majesty in the Preservation of Your Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as it is now by Law Established, with the last drop of our Blood, and peny of our Fortunes; and shall be ready on all occasions chearfully to give You such large Assistances as (joyn'd with the proportionable Supplies of other Your Majesties Loyal Subjects) may make Your Government Great and Esteem'd by Your Self and People, and valued and fear'd by all Your Allies and Neighbours abroad. We humbly beg Your Sacred Majesty to give a Gracious Acceptance to the steady Resolutions of us Your most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, which no Time, no Treachery, no Power, no Fraud or Faction, shall ever make us become or alter.

An Address to his MAJESTY, from the Common Council of the City of New Sarum.

At a Common Council holden for the City of New Sarum on Wednesday the seven and Twentieth day of April 1681. by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the said City; it is unanimously Ordered and Agreed, that the following Address be Humbly presented to His most Sacred Majesty.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

VVE your Majesties Most Dutifull, and Loyal Subjects, The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants, of your Majesties City of New Sarum; being this day in Common Council Assembled, and taking into our Serious Consideration your Majesties Most Gracious Declaration, which was Read, and Published, in the Cathedral and Parochial Churches, of this City, on Sunday last past: Do think it as well our Duty, as it is our Inclination, to take the first opportunity of Unanimously Presenting. to your Sacred Majesty; our Most Humble thanks, That (in the Place, and at the time of enjoying our Religious Worship Established by Law; and Supported by your Majesties Royal Protection) your Majestie is pleased (in the presence of God) to Renew to us, all those often repeated Assurances, which your Majesty hath given us, of Extirpating Popery, from amongst us, (to which end, we cannot but take notice, with all Dutiful Satisfaction; that your Majesty hath newly issued out your Commands; for a Strict Execution of the Laws, both Ecclesiasticall and Civil, in order thereunto) As also, of Redressing all our Grievances, and of Governing according to the Fundamental, and established Laws of this Kingdom; whereof (notwithstanding the groundless Insinuations of Ill-meaning Men to the contrary) all Reasonable, and Sober Men, are, and ought to be most entirely convinced.

Nor may we forbear, most humbly taking notice, of your Majesties indefatigable Care and Paines for the Preservation of Tangier, in the midst of so many great Streights and Difficulties; by Supporting with Supplies, out of your Majesties own Stores, a City of Christians amongst Mahumetans, of that importance to Trade; and in that extremity of danger to be lost, which, nothing but God Almightyes Goodness, assisting your Princely undertaking, could possibly effect; and for which, our Posterity, as well as our selves, will ever be oblig'd to praise God.

And, we do on our parts, most Humbly beseech your Majesty to be assured, of our Sincere, and perfect acquiescence, under your Majesties most Gracious Government, of our equal and impartial Detestation of all Popish and Phanatical principles, and practices, tending to Sedition and Rebellion, and of our Resolute, and Stedfast Adherence to your Majesties Government, both in Church and State, as now by Law Established.

In Defence whereof, and of your Majesties Sacred Person (whom God long Preserve) We do with humble Confidence, most cheerfully offer to your Majesty, the Command of our Lives and Fortunes, and that not onely out of an entire and settled principle of Allegiance, but also out of a deep Sense, That in the Preservation and Security of Your Sacred Majesties Life, and Just Prerogative, all our Lives and Liberties do Consist,
